ITEM I

Presentation by Lindsay Marsh of Equality Texas on the Safe Schools Forum Held September 16.

Ms. Marsh informed the commissioners about the meeting and explained the main purpose on ongoing discussion for safety schools and how meaningful is to implement education free for students of the harmful, physical, and emotional effect of bullying and harassment.

Ms. Marsh also stated that the Equality Texas Foundation believes that the current status does not adequately address the prevention, intervention and elimination of bullying and harassment from schools and that a comprehensive program is necessary to put in place.

The Equality Foundation recognized that training and education is essential to enforce safety. She closed her presentation stating that bullying and harassment is a problem in Texas schools and that students must be safe to learn.

ITEM II

Presentation by Rudy Williams, Austin Citizen and a possible representative from the Austin Police Department in regard to a Resolution Concerning Austin Police use of Arbitrary and Excessive force.

Mr. Rudy William could not be present, but Debbie Russell and John Manno Assistant Chief of the City of Austin Police Department (APD) spoke in lieu of him. The general idea is about the standards in the use of force policy, in how they value life, the preservation of life standard. The standard is being proposed that all elements of the standards are incorporated in the APD policy. The police department is on the same page and encouraged panel to take a look of the current policy, governing the preservation of life.
